Office of Homeland Security & Emergency Services

Information Sharing Environment

- OHSES shares information on a daily basis with Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) and participating Tribes
- Daily situation reports from Department of Interior (DOI) and Department of Homeland Security (DHS) as well as relevant information concerning Homeland Security and Emergency Management.
- Law Enforcement Sensitive information is shared with confirmed Homeland Security personnel that have a non-public email address.

Nuclear Regulatory Commission

- 2009 OHSES partnered with NRC to identify Emergency Managers for those Federally Recognized Tribes that are located within 50 miles of a nuclear power plant
- OHSES did not assist with the identification of EMs for non- Federally Recognized Indian Tribes

Nuclear Regulatory Commission

- This is a first step in a larger OHSES program to identify all CI/KR in Indian Country and assist Tribes as needed with emergency planning and mitigation

Goal

Build a safer, more secure, and more resilient America by enhancing protection of the Nation's CI/KR to prevent, deter, neutralize, or mitigate the effects of deliberate efforts by terrorists to destroy, incapacitate, or exploit them; and strengthening national preparedness, timely response, and rapid recovery in the event of an attack, natural disaster, or other emergency.

Tribal Assistance Coordination Group (TAC-G)

- The TAC-G defines how Indian Affairs (IA), the Indian Health Service (IHS), and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) intend to operate within during a disaster or emergency.
- Provides strategic guidance and operational context to work within an interagency framework that supports the National Incident Management System (NIMS) and respects the application of the National Response Framework (NRF).
- It also reinforces support of Emergency Support Function (ESF) #15 and the NRF Tribal Annex.

Tribal Assistance Coordination Group (TAC-G) con't

- The TAC-G ensures coordination with tribal governments on all aspects of incident management operations and provides a mechanism to work closely with DHS to ensure tribal relations actions are carried out in accordance with established Federal Government policies and procedures.
- Current Partners include: Indian Affairs, IHS, FEMA, DOI, ACF, HUD, DHS

Tribal Assistance Coordination Group (TAC-G) con't

- In absence of a federal disaster declaration, utilizing an all hazards approach to emergency management, IA and IHS may operate in a structure to provide support to tribal governments under existing authorities.
